Strengthening Individuals and Families Across the Lifespan

Serving the community since 1964, Willowstone Family Services is a private nonprofit organization, dedicated to strengthening individuals and families of all ages and income levels to improve their quality of life.

HEALTHY FAMILIES & BABY TALK - Parent and child developmental support services

A no-cost, at home education and support program for parents who qualify, and their newborn babies until they turn 3 years old. We answer parenting questions, help build good parenting skills, do stages of development assessments, give nutrition tips, and provide referrals to community services such as child care, medical care, transportation, housing, and more.

ACTIVE PARENTING -

An evidence based group for parents of children ages 5 - 18yrs old.

Parenting is one of the most difficult and important roles in life. Sometimes, we could all use help through guidance and support. This video and discussion program is facilitated by a counselor. It is proven to promote positive parenting through knowledge and skills that strengthen parenting practices to teach parents how to build resilience in children for their future happiness and success.

GET S-M-A-R-T, JR. -

An interactive education & prevention program for teens.

This FREE program is designed for students 14-18 yrs old. Students are given evidence-based methods and tools to empower them to make educated decisions about substance and alcohol use to make wise choices for their future.

WILLOWSTONE COUNSELING -

Counseling for individuals and families

Willowstone Counseling maintains the highest standards of quality care for you and your family in a confidential and respectful environment. We serve children 4 and up, adults, and families. We accept Medicaid, Medicare, most private insurances, and can offer an income-based fee scale.

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM - Individualized counseling services for local businesses and their employees.

Are you an employer trying to prevent employees' personal problems from interfering with their work performance? Willowstone would like to assist you in supporting your workforce.
