Strengthening Individuals and Families Across the Lifespan

Serving the community since 1964, Willowstone Family Services is a private, nonprofit organization dedicated to strengthening individuals and families of all ages and income levels to improve quality of life.

HEALTHY FAMILIES & BABY TALK Parent and child developmental support services

A no-cost, at-home education program for parents and their babies for up to 3 years. We answer your parenting questions, help you build good parenting skills, complete stages of development assessments, give nutrition tips, and provide referrals to community services such as child care, medical care, transportation and housing, and more!

ACTIVE PARENTING

An evidence-based group for parents of children ages 5-18

This video & discussion program promotes positive parenting and prevents child maltreatment by fostering knowledge and skills that change or improve parenting practices.

GET S-M-A-R-T, JR.

A 5-session early intervention program for youth

This program educates and encourages teens to proactively think about decisions pertaining to alcohol, substance abuse, and peer pressure.

WILLOWSTONE COUNSELING

Counseling for individuals, couples, & families

Willowstone maintains the highest standards of quality of care for you and your family, in a confidential and respectful environment.

We serve ages 2 to the end of life.

We accept Medicaid, Medicare, most private insurances, and offer an income-based fee scale.

Invest in your relationship--consider our counseling services.
